Bleeding Kansas

1. "Southern Chivalry." This was a political cartoon depicting Charles Sumner being beaten by southern Congressman Preston Brooks after delivering an anti-slavery speech about "Bleeding Kansas." Fill in the speech bubbles with your own words. Be creative! (Sumner should be saying something against slavery and popular sovereignty while Brooks should be saying something pro-slavery or against Sumner's speech).

2. "Bleeding Kansas." This was a drawing from a magazine from the time that depicted pro and anti-slavery settlers fighting each other in Kansas. Unlike the previous cartoon, it says both sides are at fault for the violence. Fill in the speech bubbles with something a pro-slavery settler would say and an anti-slavery settler would say. Say whatever for the guy on the bottom. Be creative!
